

Navy Case No. 84,488

BI-LEVEL DUAL HOISTING CONTAINER TRANSPORT CRANE

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Containers are transported by movement of upper and lower trolleys along vertically spaced travel paths established by laterally spaced rails formed in a boom supported in a horizontal position by suspension cables attached to a frame assembly through which the boom extends horizontally between container receiving and delivery locations.